

Irene Hollerback Egan

Federal Affairs Associate at CH2M HILL

iegan@verizon.net

Experience

Federal Affairs Associate at CH2M HILL

November 2008 - Present (8 months)

Providing client service on project grant/federal appropriations assistance and various other strategic communications functions.

Director, Government Affairs/Political Programs at CH2M HILL

October 2006 - November 2008 (2 years 2 months)

Responsible for general government affairs - Initiated strategic planning campaigns to address the needs of the engineering and client communities for the upcoming Congress and incoming administration. Other duties included grassroots program development and implementation, legislative research/analysis and dissemination of legislation to senior leadership for further action. Co-produced annual PAC solicitation plan, created and managed federal/state and private/corporate grants database. Planned and managed multi-faceted social/corporate responsibility program thereby enhancing community and client relationships. Overall government affairs communications: legislative news updates, website management and internal/external communiques.

3 recommendations available upon request

New Home Counselor at Beazer Homes

October 2004 - May 2006 (1 year 8 months)

8 million dollars in new home sales - activities included sales, contract management and customer service. Assisted in closing activities and followup to ensure high degree of customer/purchaser satisfaction.

Government and Community Relations Representative at Covanta Energy

September 1986 - August 2002 (16 years)

Provided general government affairs services to energy-from-waste services company.

Responsible for regional lobbying activities on issues ranging from solid waste to renewable energy -- Community relations/corporate responsibility planning and implementation.

Education

The George Washington University

BA, Political Science, 1995 - 2000

Boston College

Honors and Awards

2008 Rewards/Recognition Award

2007 Rewards/Recognition Award

2005 Excellence in Marketing Award

1993 Employee of the Year Award

Irene Hollerback Egan

Federal Affairs Associate at CH2M HILL

iegan@verizon.net

3 people have recommended Irene

"Irene is thorough, detailed oriented, and has the drive to get it done."

— Anthony Hernandez, Director of California Governmental Affairs, CH2MHILL, worked directly with Irene at CH2M HILL

"Irene Egan is a creative, hard working team player. She takes initiative and explores options outside the paradigm to present workable solutions to routine problems, as well as extraordinary challenges. She handles day-to-day routine issues with little/no guidance, and collaborates early when presented with complex problems. She is energetic and enthusiastic, and knows how to oversee subordinates and motivate them. I trust her implicitly."

— Jay Farrar, was Irene's client

"Irene is an outstanding team member of the CH2M HILL Government Relations Team. She has an uncanny knack for connecting important strategic information to our various business groups adding a clear differentiator to our team strategies. Our clients appreciate Irene's professionalism and unique abilities to assist them in whatever opportunity or project we are working on or evaluating. She is a key component to our government relations/business development team!"

— Vincent Ragucci, Vice President, Governmental Affairs, North America, CH2M HILL, worked directly with Irene at CH2M HILL

Contact Irene on LinkedIn